Winners of the 2016 Chávez Community Leadership Awards Announced

The recipients of the 2016 César E. Chávez Community Leadership Awards were announced Friday, April 1, at the community leadership luncheon held as part of the 6th annual César E. Chávez Commemorative Celebration.

The awards honor the life and work of Chávez by recognizing people from across the state of Michigan and the Michigan State University community who are working to uplift themselves while serving the community. This year’s winners include:

From the Statewide Michigan Community

Community Member
• Tamara Warren

Pre-College Students & Future Spartans
• Tierra Nelson
• Jahrule Carson
• Selene Marr
• Lauryn Cantu
• Ilario Martinez
• Oyuki Yudho
• Enrique Jimenez
• Bianca Gomez
• Kayla Womack

From the MSU Community

Faculty and Staff
• Erica Fiasky

Undergraduate Student
• Calvon Sheridan

Graduate Student
• Maximilllian Monroy-Miller

The annual César E. Chávez Commemorative Celebration is coordinated by the Michigan State University Office of Inclusion and Intercultural Initiatives, Lansing Community College, and the City of Lansing. The celebration includes community events, educational programs, volunteer opportunities, and blood drives.