Presentation and discussion with students on internship opportunities in Israel by Alon Tal

Register here

Sunday, September 19th 12:30-1:30pm

Immediately following What Happens When the Middle East Gets Even Hotter? Israel's Response to the Global Climate Crisis with Prof. Alon Tal 11:00am-12:30pm

Dr. Alon Tal is a Serling Visiting Israeli Scholar teaching at James Madison College in MSU for the seventh time during the Fall 2021 semester. Dr. Alon Tal [Sc.D., Harvard University; Ll.B., Hebrew University] founded the Arava Institute for Environmental Studies, a graduate studies center in which students join Israeli, Palestinian and Jordanian environmentalists to study common environmental challenges and solutions. Dr. Tal founded and served as the co-chair of Israel’s Green Party. He also established Adam Teva V’din, The Israel Union for Environmental Defense. He is the author or editor of eleven books, including most recently a co-edited book, Climate Change, Environment and National Security, A New Front (2021) and The Land Is Full: Addressing Overpopulation in Israel, New Haven, Yale University Press, (2016).