

ART. UNITY. JUSTICE.

January 25, 2019

12:00 PM

Snyder-Phillips Hall

Performance Keynote by Ariana Brown @arianathepoet

Visual And Performance Art • Prizes for Artists • Giveaways • And More

The Social Justice Art Festival is a collaboration between MSU colleges and units to provide a space for MSU students to utilize art as a tool to engage in topics related to social justice. Art is a useful tool that encompasses multiple mediums and has the ability to inspire and convey messages that we often grapple with or relate to in our everyday lives. The inspiration for this event is derived from contemporary art shows and local festivals that capture the sentiment of art, unity, and justice.

#msuart4justice

jmc.msu.edu/sjaf

James Madison College
MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

Residential College in the Arts and Humanities
MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY