What is the Social Justice Art Festival?
The Social Justice Art Festival is a one (1) day festival that engages students, faculty, staff and the greater East Lansing community around social justice topics through artistic expression.

Why would you want to participate in the festival?
• Opportunity to share your visual or performance art with the broader MSU community
• Receive the opportunity to win one (1) of three (3) $500 awards
• Art has the capacity to move us, to open up new ways of thinking and understanding, to increase our empathy and inspire us to take action.

Examples of art
Visual: digital art, installation, mixed media, painting, photography, prints and multiples, sculpture, video/film
Performance: dance, music, poetry, storytelling, spoken word, theatre

How do you get involved?
